

Mrs. Kennedy to Lose
Secret Service Guard

Under Federal law, Secret Service protection for Mrs. John F. Kennedy will end next March 31, unless she declines it earlier, a spokesman for the Secret Service said yesterday.

But Secret Service protection could continue for her two children, Caroline and John Jr., after March 31.

The spokesman said that Congress had recently enacted a bill that would provide protection to widows of Presidents for life unless they remarried. The bill also provides protection for minor children of Presidents until they reach the age of 16.

In addition Federal law provides an annual pension of $10,000 for life, payable in monthly installments, for Presidential widows. The act makes no reference to remarriage.
