

SfChron

27 MAY 70

Jackie Has 2 Drinks, Scotches Rumor

Athens

Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis paused briefly outside an Athens bistro to talk with newsmen yesterday and was asked about European reports of a tiff with her husband over singer Maria Callas.

"Oh, my God, what will they think of next?" said Mrs. Onassis. She laughed at the stories that she was angered because her husband Greek shippin tycoon Aristotle Onassis, had dined in Paris with Miss Callas, his one-time companion, after promising not to see her again.

Mrs. Onassis and a woman friend ran into the reporters after they had stopped at the bistro for ouzo, an anisette-like aperitif, and fried zucchini. Mrs. Onassis had two ouzos.

United Press