

Threats Against Onassises Are Charged to a Briton, 58

LONDON, Sept. 4 (AP)—A man accused of demanding $3.4-million in a threat to kidnap Aristotle S. Onassis and his wife, Jacqueline, was also charged today with threatening to kill Mrs. Onassis.

The extra charge was disclosed as John W. Humphrys, a 58-year-old electronics engineer, was remanded without bail until a jury trial begins next week. He was arrested July 24.

In the preliminary hearing he was accused of sending a letter to John Newnham, a shipping agent for Mr. Onassis, in which there was a threat to kill Mrs. Onassis, the widow of President John F. Kennedy. Further details were not disclosed.

At an earlier hearing he was accused of demanding $3.4-million from Mr. Newnham to prevent the kidnapping of the Onassises.

The couple are in London on a visit.
