

Kennedy Bike

Robbery Plea

New York

Robert Lopez, an admitted bicycle thief, is back in prison after pleading not guilty to robbing John F. Kennedy Jr., son of the late president, of his bike last May 14 in Central Park.

Lopez, held on bail totaling $8800 for other charges, is due in Manhattan Criminal Court Monday in connection with a plea of guilty to another bike theft in Central Park May 22.

Associated Press