

Bobby Satisfied By Probe

New York

Former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy said yesterday that he does not intend to read the Warren Commission's report on the assassination of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy.

But he said he had been briefed on it, and that he is "completely satisfied that the commission investigated every lead and examined every piece of evidence."

Kennedy, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate from New York, issued this statement through his campaign office:

"As I said in Poland last summer, I am convinced that Oswald was solely responsible for what happened and that he did not have any outside help or assistance. He was a malcontent who could not get along here or in the Soviet Union.

I have not read the report, nor do I intend to. But I have been briefed on it and I am completely satisfied that the commission investigated every lead and examined every piece of evidence. The commission's inquiry was thorough and conscientious."
