

29 September 1968

Private source reports that Vince Rose, while posing as a reporter with a camera, filming Rev. J.C. Owen, had established that one of the persons Owen picked up in his pickup truck was Crispin Gonzales* who committed suicide in Mexico after alleging he knew of a plot to kill RFK that involved Sirhan.

National Enquirer may have run the story 29sept or 6oct68.

*Owen has said all the other men he saw with Sirhan were apparently of the same nationality as Sirhan, speaking the same language, etc. Gonzales is supposed to be Mexican-American, according to Weisberg, holding dual citizenship.
