MOTHER OF OSWALD ENDS TIE WITH LANE

Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald said here yesterday that she had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer.

Mr. Lane had sought, before the Warren Commission, to clear her late son, Lee H. Oswald, of the charge of assassinating President Kennedy. Oswald was killed by Jack Ruby in Dallas Nov. 24, a few days after the assassination.

At the Beekman Tower Hotel, Mrs. Oswald said she had asked Mr. Lane to send her a copy of his report to the commission and to stop any "organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens Committee of Inquiry."

She received no contributions from an appeal she made in Chicago March 21, to pay for an office, investigator and a stenographer, she said, because people mistakenly believed she was affiliated with that committee.

Last Jan. 11 Mr. Lane agreed to represent her, free of charge, in collecting information on the shooting of the President and her son and presenting it to the commission.

"I consider your work finished, and hereby terminate your representation," Mrs. Oswald told him in a letter to committee headquarters, 156 Fifth Avenue. She praised his work.

Mr. Lane agreed to end the relationship and promised to send Mrs. Oswald a copy of his report.

"In due course, all of the facts will be presented to the American people despite the fact that your son was denied the right to a trial," he told her.
