

Lane to play recording challenged by Warren

MARK LANE will present new evidence to show that Oswald could not have been the lone assassin of President Kennedy at a series of public meetings to be held at Theater Four, 424 W. 55th St., New York, beginning Monday night, July 20, and continuing through July 26. Tickets are available at the box office and at the Citizens' Committee of Inquiry, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, YU 9-6850.

Lane said the "controversial tape recording," which Chief Justice Warren has stated he "has every reason to doubt" exists (GUARDIAN, July 11) will be played.
