E NEW YORK TIMES, SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1970

Newton and Seale Reunited Briefly

By JOHN DARTON Special to The New York Times

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 21-Huey P. Newton and Bobby G. he was there. briefly reunited today and embraced warmly.

house, where Mr. Seale is to was lited a week later. stand trial in the Alex Rackley murder case.

"He was looking beautiful," Newton said afterward, smiling broadly.

"I was concerned because I had heard that he was fasting in prison—I told him to eat a lot and get fat like me," added defense.

told only yesterday to expect a proceedings. chance to view his close friend and revolutionary associate.

Judge Permitted Meeting

The meeting was permitted their chests in silent salute. by Judge Harold M. Mulvey shortly after Newton arrived at news conference a block away Don Southerland, the actor, the courthouse at 9:10 A.M., accompanied by Mr. Hilliard. The state's attorney prosecuting bench. He said the Judge was the case, Arnold Markle, said "leaning to the prosecution." he objected to such a meeting on the ground that it violated procedures allowing defendants to see only their attorneys and referred to a statement by gave the revolutionary hand-judge. "If we do not receive key that those waiting at the Marin [County]," he said. back of the line did not realize Earlier this week, a mem-

Charles R. Garry.

The two Panther leaders, along with David Hilliard, the party's chief of state, met in party's chief of state, met in party's ciner of state, met in sentenced him to six months information, read a statement for contempt of court after a saying that the New Haven than an hour in an empty jury courtroom scuffle. The sentence chapter members were "young" and "immature" at the time of judge, shaking his hand.

Introduced to Newton

"How you doing?" Newton replied passively.

the muscular, thin-wasted 28- the Panther minister of defense fornia. year-old Panther minister of took a seat in the front row as Mr. Seale testified on behalf shooting of an Oakland police-Mr. Seale has been in prison of Lonnie McLucas, the first to man, His conviction on charges here awaiting trial since last be tried in the murder and kid- of coluntary manslaughter were March 15, and defense attornapping case. He sat with his later reversed because of neys described him as "elated" chin resting upon a cupped omitted instructions to the jury, over the visit. He had been fist, unsmiling through the and he was released on $50,000

At the recess, when the party chairman passed by Newton,

Cites California Shooting

immediate family.

While the defense lawyers were in the judge's chambers, "skepticism" that a black man Newton, dressed in a black V-neck T-shirt and striped slacks, greeted the Panthers and their sympathizers waiting to the Aug 7 courtbourse short.

We statement by Kingman Brewster Jr., in which they almost drove into the drive-way of the home where the two spent the night.

Newton said he planned to leave for California over the weekend, but would return for and their sympathizers waiting to the Aug 7 courtbourse short.

shake to the men, in a scene justice, we will see more action that was emotional but so low- of the kind that took place in orandum was circulated here by Seale, the co-founders of the Black Panther party, who have then introduced to Judge all courthouse security personbeen separated by prison bars for almost three years, were briefly reunited today and emelying the sealer of the Panther leaders were the State's Attorney's office to Judge all courthouse security personnel containing excerpts from new priefly reunited today and emelying the sealer of the panther leaders were the State's Attorney's office to State's Attorney's of blacks who died in the confron-

> Rackley's slaying and should not be blamed because they "And, Your Honor, this is were terrorized by George Sams Huey Newton," said Mr. Garry. Jr., a witness for the prosecu-"How are you?" asked the tion whom Panthers contend was a police infiltrator.

The last time the two Panther leaders had seen each other was During the morning session, in another courtroom, in Cali-

> Newton was on trial for the bail earlier this month. However, he faces a new trial.

Newton arrived at 12:15 A.M. at Kennedy Airport in their eyes met, they smiled and New York, where he was greet-their fists clenched against ed by two dozen party members At 1 P.M., Newton held a was Jane Fonda, the actress; and Mark Lane, the New York

Also on hand were numerous undercover agents. Two cars trailed the limousine carrying Asked about Mr. Seale, he Newton and Mr. Hilliard Westport, Conn., so closely that and their sympathizers waiting to the Aug. 7 courthouse shoot- Mr. Seale's trial at which he in line to get in the courtroom. out in San Rafael, Calif., that hopes to testify. His trip to the He embraced the women and left four dead, including a East Coast was kept quiet because, as one lawyer explained, "We didn't want to have a mass rally."