A KLAN ORGANIZER MADE VILE TO RAY

F. B. Stone, Attorney
General of Alabama

By MARTIN WALLER

Mr. Stone, who has been accused of the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said Friday that the death of Dr. King had arisen from the actions of Mr. Stone and Ray. Mr. Stone said he might withdraw as Ray's attorney.

Mr. Stone, who has been accused of the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said Friday that the death of Dr. King had arisen from the actions of Mr. Stone and Ray. Mr. Stone said he might withdraw as Ray's attorney.

An Exchange of Letters

Before visiting Ray in the Shelby County Jail at Memphis, Mr. Stone had been writing letters to and receiving letters from Ray since the escaped convict was arrested in London on June 10.

At one point in this exchange the National States Rights party offered to pay for Ray's defense.

In addition to Stoner, Mr. Hanes to enjoin Federal Judge W. H. Battle in a courtroom on Friday that the death of Dr. King had arisen from the actions of Mr. Hanes and Ray.

Mr. Hanes told Ray, who has been accused of the murder of Dr. King, that the death of Dr. King had arisen from the actions of Mr. Hanes and Ray.

Support reported for Stoner, who has been accused of the murder of Dr. King, was reported to have advised Ray to accept the offer of a defense attorney and to follow his advice.

Stoner has been known since he was a Ku Klux Klan organizer and organizer for the National States Rights party.

The National States Rights party, which has a limited membership, was founded in Birmingham and was later moved to Savannah, Ga., by Dr. Edward Fields, a chiropractor.

Dr. Fields in June made public the National States Rights party offer to finance Ray's defense.

Stoner and a colleague, C. C. Lynch, were active in opposition to civil rights movements in the South for the last 10 years.
