

Filed RFK (b)

From story on The National Violence Commission, by John Wordheimer:

"At a news conference held to release the commission's statement on assassination, the chairman, Milton S. Eisenhower, was asked why other heads of state could expose themselves to the public while the American President must be constantly shielded. Mr. Eisenhower responded:

"We're the only nation in the world that has the gun population we have."