

Kyto Out-Agnew Agnew At Rally, McIntire Says

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Rev. Carl McIntire said today that Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky would attend the "March for Victory rally in Washington and predicted that Mr. Ky would "out-Agnew Agnew."

Mr. McIntire, speaking at a news conference after a 45-minute visit with Vice President Ky in Saigon over the weekend, said, "he has accepted our invitation" and has never altered his opinion.

Mr. McIntire deplored what he said were attempts—he did not elaborate — by the White House and State Department to keep the South Vietnamese vice president away from the rally, planned for Oct. 3 at the Washington Monument. Mr. McIntire, a fundamentalist and evangelist, heads the Bible Presbyterian Church in Collingswood, N. J.
