Dear Sir,

It is my understanding that Dorothy Kilgallen had been in the employ of the New York Journal American, which has since merged into your paper the World Journal Tribune.

Miss Kilgallen held an exclusive and private thirty-minute interview with Jack Ruby during his trial, granted to her by one Judge Joe B. Brown.

I am deeply interested in securing and reading a copy of this transcript.

If you would be so kind, as to send me a copy of this interview, your efforts would be deeply appreciated.

Any cost associated with the securing, reproducing, and sending of this information, will be paid by the recipient.

Sincerely,
Shirley Story
