

NYTimes

9 Jan. 1966

Oswald's Landlady Dies DALLAS, Jan. 9 (UPI)—Mrs. Earline Roberts, landlady of President Kennedy's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, died today in Dallas, little more than two years after her small rooming house in the Oak Cliff section of the city became a landmark. She was 60 years old. Mrs.	Roberts is the second person connected with the assassination to die in recent weeks. William Wayne Whaley, the cab driver who drove Oswald from downtown Dallas to a spot in Oak Cliff, near his rooming house just after the assassination was killed in a traffic accident last Dec. 18.
--	--