Madill, Okla, July 17 (AP)- Mrs. Marina Oswald, widow of the man accused of assassinating President Kennedy, sampled American resort living this week, and, like many another vacationer, got sunburned.

Mrs. Oswald spent a brief vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Declan P. Ford of Richardson, Tex., a Dallas suburb where the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald not lives, at Lake Texoma near here.

Madill Record reporter Wilbert Wiggs, who interviewed Mrs. Oswald during her stay at the Oklahoma-Texas border resort, wrote that few people knew she was at the lodge.

Her presence was discovered through personal long distance telephone calls, Wiggs' story, published yesterday, said.

Ford told Wiggs that Mrs. Oswald was "highly nervous around strangers, especially strangers who are reporters." Wiggs quoted Ford as saying she had become especially cautious with newsmen since publication of her late husband's diary of his life in Russia, where they met.

The Warren commission, which is investigating the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas last Nov. 22, asked that an inquiry be made into how the diary was obtained for publication.

Mrs. Oswald has been quoted as saying it obtained without her knowledge.

Mrs. Oswald spent her time here reading, swimming and relaxing -- and said, with Mrs. Ford acting as interpreter, that she had been sunburned while trying to acquire a tan.

"It is the first time in a long time I can get to the beach," she told Wiggs through Mrs. Ford. She said he was her first visit to a resort area in this country.

Mrs. Oswald's daughter, Junie, 2, accompanied her to the lake, but her young son remained in Richardson with friends.
