DALLAS, TEX., OCT. 9 (AP)-FEDERAL JUDGE JOE ESTES OF DALLAS WILL PROBABLY HAVE TO DECIDE WHO IS TO HAVE CUSTODY OF THE RIFLE WHICH KILLED PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY AND THE PISTOL WHICH KILLED DALLAS POLICE OFFICER J. D. TIPPIT.

ASST. U.S. DIST. ATTY. TIM TIMMINS MADE THIS PREDICTION AFTER JOHN J. KING FILED AN ANSWER TO A SUIT FILED EARLIER BY THE GOVERNMENT TO LEGALLY TAKE TITLE TO THE WEAPONS.

KING FILED HIS FIRST SUIT IN DENVER LAST MAY, SAYING HE HAD PURCHASED THE WEAPONS FROM THE WIDOW OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND HAD A BILL OF SALE.

IN HIS ANSWER, KING ASSERTED THAT HE PAID MRS. OSWALD, NOW MRS. KENNETH PORTER, $10,000 IN CASH AND AGREED TO PAY AN ADDITIONAL $35,000 UPON DELIVERY OF THE GUNS.
