

SUPREME COURT'S ACTIONS

Washington, April 19 - The Supreme Court took the following actions today:

.....

Secret Agents

Let stand a lower court's ruling that the Central Intelligence Agency can refuse, on national security grounds, to answer questions in a slander suit brought by an Estonian émigré who was called a Soviet agent by a Government employe who acted under orders from the C.I.A. (No. 1281, Heine v. Raus). Dissenting: Douglas and Stewart.
