

Panel to Review C.I.A. Urged
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)
—Benjamin S. Rosenthal, Democrat of Queens, proposed today the establishment of a joint Congressional committee to review the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency and similar organizations. "It is intolerable," he told the House, "that intelligence activities of the Central Intelligence Agency and other organizations are free from democratic review."

see CIA, 8 Sept. 1965. AP 306 pcs