A Bodyguard of Colombo Prime Suspect in Slaying

NYTimes

By NICHOLAS GAGE JUL 2 9 1971

Philip Rossillo, described by on gun charges, Federal agents tion as a bodyguard of Joseph for comment. A. Colombo Sr., is a prime Federal Treasury agents who following his movements. acted on reports from infor the arrest of Mr. Colombo Continued on Page 39, Column 5

the Federal Bureau of Investiga-said. He could not be reached

Sources close to the investisuspect in the killing of Jerome gation of the shooting of Joseph A. Johnson, the man the police Colombo Sr., who has been desaid shot Colombo last June 28. scribed as a Mafia leader, said Rossillo, 28 years old, was one of three associates of Colombo searched yesterday by Federal Trocsum account of the police and Federal agents were investigating the background of Rossillo and had been following his mayorante

Although Rossilio has not yet formants that the three men been questioned by the police, were carrying firearms. The agents said two guns had been prime suspect in their investifound in the possession of one gation of who killed Johnson of the men, Paul Bevacqua, 32. after Johnson allegedly shot Co-Later the police found a package in a car rented to Joseph A. Colombo Jr. that allegedly contained three loaded guns. A warrant will be sought for the arrest of Mr. Colombo Cartington an egedly shot Colombo shortly before a rally of the Italian-American Civil Rights League in Columbus Circle. Rossillo, who lives at 2330 East First Street, Brooklyn, growth of Mr. Colombo

"Philip Rossillo was photo-vesterday that the condition of graphed immediately prior to Joseph A. Colombo Sr. remainthe shooting of Joseph Colombo Sr. remainthe Shooting of Joseph Colombo Sr. remainthe Shooting of Joseph Colombo Sr. remaintenance of the shooting of the shooting

Rossillo was described in the affidavit as being 5 feet, lo inches tall and weighing 220 ounds. Recently, the affidavit

Continued From Page I, Col. 3 said, he has served as driver and bodyguard of Anthony Colombo, son of the wounded reputed Mafia leader.

An affidavit filed by an F.B.I agent, Raymond Talia, in Federal Court in Brooklyn in support of requests for warrants to search Rossillo and others described Rossillo as "the bodyguard of Joseph Colombo Sr. and his immediate family."

Pistol in Satchel

Said, he has served as driver and bodyguard of Anthony Colombo, son of the wounded reputed Mafia leader.

Anthony Colombo is vice president of the Italian-American Civil Rights League, of which his father was one of the founders. Rossillo has frequently accompanied Anthony Colombo on bisits to his father was bedside at Roosevelt Hospital.

Doctors at the hospital said

Doctors at the hospital said

the shooting of Joseph Colombo Sr. carrying a black satchel," the affidavit said.

"Immediately after the shooting, a similar black satchel wa found by the New York Police Department close to the point where Philip Rossillo was photographed. The New York Police Department found the black satchel to contain a fully loaded pistol."

Rossillo was described in the affidavit as being 5 feet.

by law from possessing fireconvictions and are prohibited rying arms according to the

About noon yesterday, Treasury agents drove to Roosevelt Hospital after receiving reports that Rossillo, Bevacqua and Santo Vingo were in the area.

Car Towed Away

As they arrived they noticed As they arrived they noticed a package measuring about a cubic foot being transferred from Bevacqua's car to a black Buick leased to Joseph A. Colombo Jr., according to Joseph Lynch, acting director of the Federal Organized Crime Task Force in Brooklyn.

Becacqua, who was describ-Becacqua, who was describ-ed as a bodyguard of a Colom-bo family captain, Rcco Mira-glia, then drove off, Mr. Lynch said, as the police moved in and towed the black Buick away for illegal parking. When the package in the car was ex-mined later it was found to the package in the car was examined later it was found to amined later it was found to contain three guns, he said.

After the black Buick was towed away, the Treasury agents approached a parked maroon Cadillac and found Rossillo, Santo Vingo and Anthony Colombo in it. Santo Vingo was described in the F.B.I. affidavit as another bodyguard of Joseph A. Colombo Sr. Sabatino, described as a bodyguard of Nicholas Bianco, a reputed Colombo family cap-

F.B.I. affidavit as another bodyguard of Joseph A. Colombo Sr.
Sabatino, described as a bodyguard of Nicholas Bianco, a reputed Colombo family captain, was also in the area but fled. Fderal agents said.

The Treasury agents used their search warrants to search Rossillo, Santo Vingo and the maroon Cadillac, Mr. Lynch said, and they found an empty holster and three boxes of 38-caliber ammunition in the car. None of the men in the car were immediately arrested, ho ever.

Shortly afterward Paragraph (1905) for possession of untaxed cigarettes, but the charge was dismissed.

Although he has not been picked up as yet he has been sought by the police for more than two weeks.

The police tried to pick him up on July 20 after being informed that he wa in Roosevelt Hospital visiting Colombo. But as patrolmen entered one door, Rosillo exited from another, sources close to the investigation, could not be reached for continuous formation in the car.

Shortly afterward Bevacqua was stopped at Bath Avenue and 16th Street in Brooklyn and searched by Treasury agents. They found one gun on his person and one in the car, both of them loaded, Mr. Lynch said.

Gn Traced to Theft

One of the guns was later traced through its serial number by the F.B.I. and found to have come from a shipment stolen at Kennedy International Airport in 1969, Mr. Lynch said.

Bevacqua was later arraigned before United States Magistrate May Schiffman on illegal possible of the shooting of Colombo. They stressed that Johnson was not shoot by a policeman. One of the guns was later

Max Schiffman on illegal pos-shot by a policeman.

session of a gun and possession

Bevacqua was convicted of robbery in 1964 and served 20 months in prison. He said he was a concrete worker.

Rossillo received a suspended serverse in 1962 for assault and sentence in 1962 for assault and robbery. He was arrested in Maryland in 1965 for possession of untaxed cigarettes, but tion said.

Chief of Detectives Albert A.
Seedman, who is in charge of the Colombo investigation, the Colombo investigation, could not be reached for comment last night.

It was learned, however, that reports linking Rossillo to the shooting of Johnson have been made to Federal, state and local law enforcement officials by underworld informants close to Colombo family, members Colombo family members.
Shortly after the shootings at