[L. Patrick Gray, appearing before Senate Judiciary Committee 28 Feb] denied he made political speeches for Mr. Nixon during last fall's election campaign.

Despite his statements, Senator Robert C. Byrd (Dem.-W. Va.), a Democratic leader and committee member, again said he would not vote for Gray because he still believes the acting director is too political for the job.

"The politicalization of the FBI is tantamount to setting up an American gestapo," said Byrd.
