

Doesn't Prove He Did It, Says Oswald's Mother

FORT WORTH—(UPI)—Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said today the Warren Commission Report failed to convince her that her son, Lee Harvey Oswald, assassinated President Kennedy.

"There is no proof," she said.

"This is just a summary of their findings," she said.

"We have to take their word for it that Lee is the assassin. There is no proof; they are not giving up any proof at all.

"They say they'll release more at a future date. That's not fair. They're holding all 28 volumes of testimony. They're not giving any news; just conclusions."

Mrs. Oswald has steadfastly maintained that her son is innocent
