

WHAT PRICE JUSTICE: THE STORY OF ABE FORTAS

by Fred Hoffman

filed Garrison

"It was Fortas who proposed to Johnson the idea of a sham investigation by a Liberal Commission to look into the assassination of President Kennedy... Such a Commission would preempt the ground of any other investigation and bring rumors about the murder under control. It would prevent publicity-seekers from using any other investigating agencies such as the House Un-American Activities Committee to confuse the issues and would preclude mystery buffs and individualist zealots from digging around in such a politically sensitive area of concern... "

Article deals with Fortas' relations with LBJ, Walter Jenkins, Bobby Baker.
