

Efforts to discredit Garrison (magazine articles, radio etc.) [N.O. States-Item carried first story on investigation 17 Feb 67.]

- 6 May 67 - James Phelan, "Rush to judgment in New Orleans," Saturday Evening Post.
- 15 May - Hugh Aynesworth, "The JFK 'conspiracy'," Newsweek.
- 18 May - Itek analysis of Nix film.
- 9 Jun - MCC asks investigation of charges in Newsweek 15 May.
- 19 Jun - NBC program, "The JFK conspiracy - the case of Jim Garrison."
- 25 Jun - AP: Bernard Gavzer and Sid Moody, "The lingering shadow; the Warren Report and its critics." (Longest single story ever sent over AP wires; special hookup of AP leased wires required to handle transmission, which took as long as seven hours on some of the circuits.)
- 25-28 Jun - CBS program, "CBS news inquiry: the Warren Report." *
- 26 Jun - William Gurvich resigns from Garrison's staff.
- 4 Aug - Lawrence Speiser, director Washington office ACLU, asks Ramsey Clark to investigate Garrison, to determine whether he is misusing powers of his office; if violations of U.S. Code are found, asks that matter be presented to a grand jury for indictment. Have no record of any action taken by Clark.
- 1,8,29 Sep - Life magazine, articles on organized crime.

*Was Marc Golden with CBS at this time? Newsweek 25 Aug 69 (filed CIA) describes him as "CBS's director of program development (and a former CIA agent) ... "
