Dear Jim,

Many thanks for your 3/6 with enclosures on de Vosjoly. No, some of it does not duplicate, and those are some of the things + most wanted. I also do not have the LIFE story, for I then did not anticipate I might suspect him of connections with things that could interest us. Perhaps ~~th~~ we will eventually get a picture of him. I believe it appeared in the NYTimes at the time of attention to Uris' TOPAZ. I have asked a student to make the check you suggest. He has done some pretty imaginative research for you, though he is only in high school. When you see COUP D'ETAT, he is the one who got the use of identical addresses by both LATIN AMERICAN REPORT and Citizens' Committee for a Free Cuba (which both, now, interest me much). Speaking of COUP, Ixa, still working on the appendix I will add, but if there is ever anyone of you with the facilities who wants to Xerox a copy, I'll send it out. Ditto on POST MORTEM ~~III~~ III; SECRETS OF THE KENNEDY AUTOPSY. Paul has POST MORTEM: SUPPRESSED KENEDY AUTOPSY.

I missed the Delaune case. I have been looking at the N.O. papers too hastily. I also note his survivors include neither wife nor children. How fascinating that ~~he~~ <sup>his brother</sup> was Chetta's brother-in-law. Did you ever notice anything further about the blond young Marine deserter? The names of the two 23-year-olds who met the police at his apt mean nothing to me.

I am also fascinated by the Ray deal, for I do not believe he was the murdered. If anything along this line comes to your attention, I would appreciate copies. We now have the possibility of any investigation of any conspiracy in any of the cases officially eliminated, without proper inquiry.

Again, my thanks and very best to you both.

Sincerely,
