

12/28-Here I am again, where angels fear to tread. Lil looked at a vest she knitted me when I removed it last night and said she thought she had enough of most of the wool left for a sweater for Jenifer's X 4-yr-old brother. She said she ~~pres~~ presumes he has grown since she learned he was four and can adjust.
So, on the chance she does more ~~the~~ than talk about it, please guide me. Is he close to average for his age and is his age correct as she (that is, SHE) recalls it? Lil has been troubled with headaches and me lately, and with an accumulation of work that now also includes about 15,000 words of typing, so I'm pretty sure she hasn't responded to the letter that so ¹⁹⁷¹ pleased her. Best, HW DEC 31 1972
