from index:

and predicted that he would be confirmed as Attorney General despite allegations of im-Mr. Nixon called him "an able, honest man" been typed on her typewriter. [51:1-4.] In his first personal defense of Acting Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst, tions, suggested that a memorandum allegedly by Mrs. Dita D. Beard had indeed investigation, which is studying the allegapropriety against him. The Federal Bureau of story by Washington Post Service; no text. copy if we saw one.) meeting." No text of FBI report. Mrs. Anderson's reporters, as was alleged in a committee written on the typewriter of Brit Hume, one of Page 51 in 52-page edition. typewriter. has been questioned, had been written on Mrs. Beard's paragraph on FBI test of memo: "The [FBI] suggested today 24 Mar | that the memorandum, the authenticity of which The bureau also said that it had not been SFChronicle for same day carried Story/has one two-sentence by Richard Halloran (You had asked for

Sunday issue. Sunday SFExaminer & Chronicle did not the 26th we wouldn't have seen it as we don't get the Mar 25 was a Saturday. IF NYTimes carried text on