thr ABA committee said more than half the men in all fails are awaiting trial! H was no NBC evening net TV news here at least because of a baseball playoff game that was broadcast. not normal reporting. There was almost nothing, as I recall, if not nothing on this. There CBS net news with Cronkite, there was no membion of it. Not normal journalistic instinct, 10/11/72 Watergate Whitewash-Media. According to the local part of the xx evening news of # /6Afteeward, Cronkite had doubts, phoned M and learned M had not phoned him. So, on tonights Dispatch, Walter Cronkite got one of the DirtyDickery calls, allegely from "rank Mankiewicz. the Washington CBS TV station, WTOP-TV, which said it was quoting the "t. Louis Post-from the other jail, asked why they were there, said to prevent another Attica. Wonder how?

All were black. From the time they got a Wash Post reporter out of bed (this started at 2:30 a.m.)

until the last I heard, the prisoners asked for reporters to be with them at what they regarded as crucial points and arranged an interview so the press could question them. One white lawyer demanding immediate trials! And what an indictment, being without bail for that long! Thecons thing, explicitly and implicitly, emphasized the dehumanizing and desparation. These men were ready to die and I suspect before hisholm wanted to. But what a switch, for the accused to be illustrate the dehumanizing, let's do it like in jail and all dtripped naked at once. Everywas in the courtroom, when the U.S.Marshals started to search the prisoners. They said, to to send a delegation with their warden to help negotiate! Last demonstration of which I heard culprit. Prisoners who had been convicted and were serving sentences elsewhere actually got heroine, was magnificent in live interview. Everything, including her, made society the was no judge in courtroom. Also no precedent. Shirley Chisholm seems to have been a real of 7 p.m.last word is that they had strated to bus prisoners to court for trial but there how it started, wound up being for trials and decent lawyers. I'm not up to date, but as old, hardened criminals, awaiting trial "for 16 months and more". The revolt, regardless of DC jail revolt: TV and radio reporting excellent, esp. TV as I saw it on CBS' WTOP. Kids with
