

Sorry I'm so confused today. I'd accumulated too much backup copying and in spreading it around in cramped quarters lost track. I did not copy Joe Kraft's col. from Post on theory you'll see. 13 grafs as used in Post. Header "'Managing' the Watergate." Like the Post editorial, it is written to seem tough but isn't, is actually a defense of GL, of whom the kindest question that can be asked is what kind of man is it who arruunds himself with such as these, no single one of whom is not in some way involved? 4/22
