what I've written, something, I think a phone conversation, disclosing that long after this, after he was out of it all, Pat Gray still had a friendly relationship with those who had him ting to me so after going over the paper and taking care of the mail instead of writing I started some cleaning up. In the course of it I found a clipping intended as a reminder. I did not forhanging and turning, turning. A favor-doing relationship. Isn t is sub-human? HW 12/10/73 remind me of something I have marked and filed and I hope where I'll find it for when I read get, although I did misplace this clip (spotted in hrgs and used from there). However, it does Whether or not it should have been, that belated "I did nothing" note from Treuhaft was upset-
