

While I was with him, Bud got a good idea today. He tried to reach Dash with it-but Dash is taking some time off. Idea to switch witness order, putting Ehrlichman on before Mitchell, instead of reopening with Honest John. It seems that HJ lingers with loyalty to GL, despite everything. This can mean many things, like GL has that much on him. However, if anything can open him up, it would be Ehrlichman cutting his throat. So, it is obvious that Erh should have the chance at the try first, if Mitchell is a clam.

I am getting the full texts of all the documents on domestic intelligence. Xeroxes. The Post thinks it has printed all of them. But with my experience with the Dean statement and other things, and with close deadlines, why take a chance? The court reporter is switching stenos each 10 pp, is delivering transcripts hourly, the last an hour after the end of the hearings. Pretty good! HW 7/5/73
