

Re McCabe Column - 10/1/73 - What was the political scandal of the 50s and who was the "highly respected Wash. correspondent" who got details from Fortas' office?

As you can see, not my writing! Will asks, after reading the great McCabes and Hoppes in your last mailing. In the 50s, Fortas was in practise with Thurman Arnold and Paul Porter, the firm now Arnold and Porter. Could it have been Bert Andrews, then NY Herald-Trib?... My letter to Chicago Ed: those are the two names he has sources telling him are two guys who worked for Hunt. I have no reason to credit and am inclined to disbelieve. HW 1013/73
