

Sorry I forgot to respond to your question on Post <sup>NOV 5 1975</sup> strike. The paper has been thinner for all practical purposes a late afternoon paper, as Lardner told me only last week. Fewer, & over, shorter stories. Sorry I did not stop to think & cover you when the strike began. Didn't see it when in hospital. As best I can now recall you missed nothing with having can't recall anything in coverage of ~~the~~ intelligence hearings not certain to have been in NYT in as alone.
(Space & time-stories have to be in early.) The strike appears to be bitter & to have divided the guild. Yesterday it voted to support the strike.
I'll try to be more careful.
