

JDW:Separately a 3cl envelope of clips. Included is a long AP Chappaquiddick story I've not looked at. I presume it has been syndicated and the Post elected to use it as a single long piece. I don't know if this interests you. I have an old file but stopped updating it when nothing of significance appeared. You may not ~~read~~ read this either. If you don't, don't return it, either. But if you do and you think there is substance and that it would be good to have in the file, let me know and I'll ask someone to get me a replacement, possible for a month probably without trouble and at less cost than copying. So, don't copy if there is anything good in it.
