

Don't know if it means anything or any one thing to the exclusion of others but it may interest you to know that as of 9:30 p.m. the only call I've had about the Times story on MLK was from Newhall, who wanted an angle. No other single reporter, no buff, no interested citizen. Nobody. It has space in Time and will be widely read but I take this as an indication of no impact at all. Or, that it just is not believed. No Member of Congress or staffers called, & they are back. Naturally nobody from Time did before the piece. The Newsday collaborator on this story hadn't bothered by the time he phoned this p.m. with official confirmation of my hunch that the non-leaked Memphis leak OKed by Hoover was part of Cointelpros. This justifies the application of the norms of that operation, I think. HW 1.20.76
