

If in today's editions* WxPost announced its intentions re: Woodtsein's Final Hours I did not see it. Perhaps serialization will not begin until after Newsweek use. However, I have set up a separate file on this and can copy anything if you want it. I will not be buying Newsweek, though. ... The secrets have held pretty well. ...Newsweek's purchase of first rights makes it a family cozy. I wonder if among the reasons was to prevent any leaks. ... If any of the ~~pi~~ newsweeklies has ever done this before I'm unaware of it. They seem to have persisted in the opposite posture. The inevitable conjecture~~ix~~ is has the Post something in mind? The advance use is not necessarily what it appears to be, scooping Newsweek, its own property. It can be a promo for the Newsweek issue, which I'll bet is its largest ever - if you see. Meaning in print size....Meanwhile, we both were again years ahead in seeing GL as psycho. I had a chapter on this in the first WG ms., pre-Ervin 1973, with your clips included. ... If you did not read, it includes allegations of homosexual relationship with Bebe. HW 3/27/76 MAR 29 1976
