FILM TO EXAMINE KENNEDY INQUIRY

'Rush to Judgment' Assails Warren Group Findings

A 150-minute documentary film called "Rush to Judgment," dealing with the assassination of President Kennedy and the findings of the Warren Commission, is in the final stages of preparation here.

The movie is being co-pro-duced by Mark Lane, the New York lawyer and author of the new book of the same title, and Emile de Antonio, who also di-rected the film. The book by Mr. Lane, a former New York assemblyman who was hired by Mrs. Marguerite Oswald as her legal aide before the Warren Committee's investigation involving her son, was published Aug, 15 by Holt, Rinehart and Winston. Mr. de Antonio was last represented on the local screen by "Point of Order," the successful documentary on the McCarthy hearings in Washington.

The director describes the forthcoming movie as a "strictly visual microcosm" of Mr. Lane's lengthy book, which "questions the investigational procedures of the commission under Aglo-Saxon dence, with cross-examination as the cornerstone."

The film, he said, asserts neither the built or innocense of Lee Harvey Oswald as the killer of the late President.

"But we attempt to illustrate that certain key witnesses and pertinent areas were bypassed," he added.

Eighty per cent of the film was photographed last March and April in and around Dallas, with Mr. Lane and Mr. de Antonie supervising a camera unit recruited from San Francisco. The remainder of "Rush to Judgment" utilizes stock footage on the assassination and its aftermath. That part was bought from station WFAA-TV in Dallas.

According to the director, one major and one major independent American movie company have already ex-pressed interest in exhibiting the black-and-white documentary, whose budget was $60,-000. He said:

"Unsolicited "bids have come come from the three major telin Engevision outfits land, headed by the Brit-ish Broadcasting Corporation, that nearly total our entire budget."

18 Hours of Film Shot

The original footage, totaling nearly 18 hours of run-ning time, was shot in 16-millimeter "to allow great-er freedom of movement." A final, 35-millimeter print, as edited into two and a half hours of playing time, is expected in three weeks.

The format of "Rush to Judgment" is that of a courtroom investigation, with Mr. Lane speaking a prologue and a resume. Among the presons interviewed for the documentrry were 18 witnesses to the shooting.

"Six of them," Mr.de Anton-io said, "were railroad workers standing on the overpass who were never even interviewed by the commission and who coaim to have heard one addition shot from behind a wooden fence.

Key subsidiary roles are tak-en by five Dallas people, never summoned for testimony, who had vital evidence about Jacl Ruby. Another person prominent in our film is Penn Jones Jr., the outspoke editor and publisher of the Midlothian (Tex.) Mirror."
