

3-29-73

SP cheow

San Francisco Chronicle 9
★ ★ Thurs., Mar. 29, 1973

David's Out Of the Navy

Washington

Lieutenant (j.g.) David Eisenhower was discharged from the Navy after serving two years and five months.

President Nixon's son-in-law left his ship, the guided missile cruiser Albany, at Mayport Fla., and flew to Augusta, Ga., to visit his grandmother Mamie Eisenhower, at her winter vacation home.

United Press