Nixon Fund Spent to Fabricate Publicity?

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Nixon campaign committee spent $8400 — mostly in $100 bills — on a publicity
drive aimed at fabricating bipartisan support for the provident's decision last spring to mine Haiphong
harpor, the Washington Post reported today.

It said $4400 was spent on a 'deceptive, apparently lilegal' advertisement in The New York Times rebutting that paper's editorial position.

The Post said that, although the half-page of sppeared to filly been prepared and the based by a nonpolitical efficient group, it actually was puld for with Nixon campaign funds.

Stating the expenditures never were reported to the General Accounting Office as required by law, the Post said the campaign also included writing and paying for telegrams of support sent to Nixon as well as for rallies and an organized telephone campaign supporting the decision to mine North Vietnamese harbors.

The Post said the scences wars authorized by Nixday depute campaign ager, Jeb Stuare-Market It quoted an unnamed former Nixon campaign access as saying the Committee for the Re-election of the President was "totally accessed for the biggest piece of the ception — we never do anything honestly."

"Imagine the President sending himself telegrams, patting himself on the back," the Post quoted the official as saying.
