Banker Indicted on Four Counts In Maryland 'Salute' to Agnew

6/28/73 Special to The New York Times

charging violations of state election laws was served today on Blagden H. Wharton, treasurer final charge is that Mr. Wharton of a Salute to Ted Agnew fund-failed to report a gift of about raising committee.

to Mr. Wharton's admitted falsi- a reception held by the salute fication of campaign contribu-committee. tion reports for the event, held during the Presidential cam-ed down by the Anne Arundel paign last year.

known as a result of testimony the specific charges were kept luring the Senate Watergate secret until Mr. Wharton could nearings.

M. Lankler, chairman of the here. Mr. wharton was restate Republican party acknowl- leased on his own recognizance. edged that they had listed a $49,500 loan from President Nixon's re-election committee reate an inflated impression tral Committee to oust him from his chairmanip.

The event honoring the Vice

The executive committee of they said.

Two Periury Charges

Two of the charges against a tie. Mr. Wharton, a vice president of the Maryland National Bank, the central committee at the are forms of perjury: the filing Lord Baltimore Hotel in Balti-of a false statement with more, Mr. Lankler said, "Wa-State Election Board on June tergate has totally revolution-14, 1972, and the filing of a ized attitudes toward political contradictory May 29, 1973.

under oath, eliminated the is now unacceptable." oogus contributions and correctly listed the loan. It was Mr. Lankler's critics, who confiled after it became known sider him to be part of the that disbursements from the state's "liberal establishment," national committee would be prevented efforts to force a full

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 19| The third count charges that four-count indictment Mr. Wharton failed to name $350 worth of hors d'oeuvres The charges are all related from a Baltimore caterer for

The indictments were handaign last year. County jury last week, but the The falsification became identity of the defendant and return from his vacation to ac-Mr. Wharton and Alexander cept service at the courthouse

Ouster Move Fails

In a related development, Mr. as 32 nonexistent contributions. Lankler last night survived an The false listing of the source attempt by a conservative wing of the money was designed to of the Republican State Cen-

President at the Lyric Theater the central committee voted 8 in Baltimore in May, 1972, to 7 to reject a motion calling they said her said for Mr. Lankler's resignation. Mr. Lankler cast his own vote in support of himself to break

Speaking to a meeting of statement, on financing methods deemed by one and all to be appropriate The second of the two relayer ago. What was an accorts, both of which were filed ceptable idea on June 14, 1972,

Parliamentary blunders by documented during the Water-discussion of the falsification gate hearings.