

Machine

Pot Pourri Post 7/22/73

Congressional leaders who conferred with Chinese Premier Chou En-lai in Peking earlier this month discovered that his dossiers on them and their voting records were up-to-the-minute. During a conversation with House Majority Whip John J. McFall (D-Calif.), Chou is reported to have shuffled through a stack of papers and observed: "Ah, yes, you voted for the Cambodian bombing halt before you left Washington two days ago" . . .

Despite denials by his lawyers that John W. Dean III is planning to write his memoirs, a New York agent has alerted several major book publishers to get their check-books ready. The figure being talked about for combination hard-cover and paperback rights is $500,000. . . . Jeb Stuart Magruder is another who is "getting offers" to tell his story for profit. He says he has been asked to do a book, go out on the lecture circuit and even tape a television documentary titled: "An Evening With a Watergate Family."

© 1973, Washington Post/Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate Inc.