Butterfield Says Prouty CIA Charge Has Caused 'Irreparable Damage' Post 1.15-75

United Press International

cused of being a Central Intelligence Agency contact inside the White House, said yesterday the allegation had done ircuase it was "tantamount to a charge of perjury."

In a weekend television inwas their contact man, I was a hell of a poor one, because I had no contact whatsoever with the CIA."

Butterfield took the offensive yesterday against retired

Air Force Col. L. Fletcher Prouty, the former Pentagon intelligence officer who said last week that convicted the White House I served two Alexander Butterfield, ac- Watergate conspirator E. How- masters." ard Hunt told him in 1971 that During an interview Sunday Butterfield telephoned reparable damage to him be statement to United Press In is false . . . I am upset by ternational yesterday saying that." "Those serious allegations are wholly false and defamatory. Federal Aviation Administraterview, Butterfield said, "If I In that I stated my White tion until he resigned in House duties in full under March, said he had never met oath to the Senate Watergate or seen Hunt and had never committee and other high- heard of Prouty until recently level investigative bodies, Fletcher Prouty's allegation is phone, repeated the account tantamount to a charge of perjury and the damage has been ers Friday. He added he saw parable.

> "Prouty's initial ficient to lead reporters to allany further is not defamatowords to suggest that while at it."

Butterfield was a White House on "60 Minutes" (CBS, WTOP), Butterfield said of Prouty's statement: "I think

Butterfield, who headed the Prouty, reacred by teleyesterday that he gave reportdone. In my opinion, it is irre- nothing defamatory in asserting that Butterfield was a public "contact" official. "Calling a statements about me were suf- man a contact without going lege in my case a spy motive, ry," he said. "I was one for to allege infiltration, in other nine years and I was proud of