The Washington Merry-Go-Round

THE WASHINGTON POST

Saturday, June 22, 1974 E59

Vixon Warned on Aides, Colson

By Jack Anderson

counsel Charles Colson has told that certain persons in the cam- bility that the White House with the President, Colson went House impeachment investigators he warned President Nixon Messrs. Mitchell and Magruder, struction of justice. He urged gotiate the emigration of Jews twice by mid-February, 1973, must have been involved in the me to get to the President at the from Russia to Israel. When he that Nixon confidants were in- Watergate," Colson said. volved in the Watergate scandal.

March 21, the day Nixon insists him.' I did not discuss any spehe first became aware that the cific information about Mitscandal touched his own staff. chell, Magruder or others be-On that day, said Colson, he sug- cause frankly I had no hard evigested to the President that he dence that they were involved. immediately call in a distin- but I did express anger that my guished outside lawyer to inves- friend, (E. Howard) Hunt, would tigate the case for him, a recom- be punished while others who mendation Nixon did not take.

While Colson's statements do would not be. not technically contradict the "During the conversation, I President's, his clearly shows that Nixon fal- Hunt's plight, particularly the tered in pursuing the avenues fact that he had lost his wife open to him.

testimony prepared by Colson. children to raise. I did not ask It parallels what Colson has al- the President for clemency for ready told the House impeach- Hunt. The President said that if ment panel's chief counsel John I had any facts about the in-Doar.

he became convinced that peo- him." ple close to the President, including John Mitchell and Jeb paring to leave the White House Magruder, were involved in to join a Washington law firm. Watergate. He talked about his He said he discussed the Waterconcern to White House chief of gate situation with his lawyer staff H. R. (Bob) Haldeman, and and partner-to-be, David I. Shato Nixon.

"I'm not sure of the exact time sequence but I believe it was after my first conversation with Shapiro said the real problem report to him directly if he

Former White House special press to the President my belief kin, per se, but rather the possiwhoever it was who had ordered front' of the situation. That was five weeks before the Watergate had 'ill-served must have been responsible testimony did express my compassion for upon whom he had relied so We have obtained a draft of heavily and that he had four volvement of others in Water-In January, 1973, Colson said, gate, 1 should bring them to

> At that time, Colson was prepiro, in early February.

"After reviewing all the information than available to me, Mr.

Mr. Haldeman that I deter-for the White House did not ap-llearned any significant informined it my responsibility to ex-pear to be the Watergate brea-mation.

paign organization, namely might become involved in ob- to Europe for three weeks to nefirst opportunity to explain the returned to Washington, he "I told (the President) that necessity for him to get 'out in said, Shapiro "told me that, in > tions I had been having with Mr. the facts. Who knows what's go-Shapiro. I told him that I ing on in that place. The fox may thought whoever was involved be guarding the chickens. at the Committee for the Reelection in ordering or authorizing the Watergate would eventually be exposed. I told the but the President said that Mitc-President specifically that I thought John Mitchell had to accept the responsibility, that the what advice the President was facts would in due course come getting ... I further said that if I out, and that from the Presi-should now start warning the dent's standpoint, the sooner President about others without the better.

"The President again asked whether I had any evidence. I told him no, that I merely had hearsay reports and my own suspicions. I recall that the President reacted angrily. I can almost recall his precise words: Are you suggesting that John Mitchell be held responsible or be made a scapegoat? Mitchell has, after all, sworn he was not involved. I want to get to the bottom of Watergate, but I cannot ask a possibly innocent bystander to be a scapegoat.' "

Colson said Nixon told him to flicting reports ..."

After that February meeting his view, the situation was get-"On Feb. 14, I told the Presi- ting serious. He said, 'For God's dent of the extsnsive conversa- sake, the President has to get

> "I reminded Mr. Shapiro that I had discussed my suspicions about John Mitchell on Feb. 14. hell had sworn he was innocent. I said it was impossible to know hard evidence, he might erroneously think that I was myself involved and was only trying to shift the blame to others.

Colson said that Shapiro suggested impartial outside counsel for the President and mentioned J. Lee Rankin, U.S. Solicitor General during the Eisenhower administration. Shapiro met with Rankin on March 21, 1973, to see if Rankin would take the job.

"The President seemed receptive. As I recall, he told me that he had been unable to get the facts, he had had a lot of con-

•1974, United Feature Syndicate