a computor firm owned by awarded contracts to process Medicare claims in Ohio and West Virginia despite the fact bid, the General Accounting tergovernmental Office reported yesterday.

The probe by the GAO ,the investigating arm of Congress, showed that the bid submitted by Perot's firm, Electronic developed information that Data Systems Federal Corp., will cost the taxpayers $6.2 million a year.

The two competing firms, McDonnell Douglas Automation Co. and University Computing Co., submitted bids of $5.9 million and $5.3 million respectively.

The contract was awarded by Nationwide Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Columbus, Ohio, which was picked by the Social Security Administration to handle doctors' claims for Medicare bills in Ohio and West Virginia.

The GAO charged that Nationwide changed the specifications to favor Perot's firm day, Rosenthal said that four after the bidding had begun.

"Notwithstanding Nationwide's adjustments," the GAO Federal Trade Commission said, "its cost evaluation concluded that UCC's proposal the Justice Department-are produced the lowest cost, investigating the New York MCAUTO's produced the next contract. lowest and ERSF's produced the highest."

Nevertheless, Nationwide awarded the bid to EDSF. "Because of its past performance record and other facthe GAO said. "Nationwide maintained that EDSF's proposal was the superior one."

EDSF is the federal arm of Data which was founded by Perot the circumvention of normal in 1968 and soon made him a and orderly procurement procmillionaire. His first big con- esses and the avoidance of tract was handling Medicare open competition by the utiliclaims in Texas for Blue zation of questionable market-Shield.

By June, Perot's firm was billionaire H. Ross Perot was handling Medicare claims in nine other areas.

Its activities in the Medicare field have come under attack by Chairman L. H. Founthat it submitted the highest tain (D-N.C.) of the House In-Relations Subcommittee, who released the GAO report.

> In a series of hearings in 1971, Fountain's subcommittee Perot's firm makes excess profits from its Medicare contracts. A Social Security Administration computer expert estimated its profits on Medicare contracts at 100 per cent, and on the Texas contract alone at 200 per cent.

EDSF also came under attack from Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal (D-N.Y.) over a $125,000 computer consulting contract awarded by New York state. Rosenthal said this contract could be the forerunner of a $30-million-year welfare and Medicaid computer contract for the state.

In a letter to New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller Tuesfederal agencies—the GAO, Fountain's subcommittee, the and the Antitrust Division of Perot reportedly got the contract over the objection of federal officials after paying a visit to Gov. Rockefeller. He has been a large contributor to Republican political campaigns.

Rosenthal said "the circumstances and procedures surrounding the awarding of the (New York) contract . . . follow an all-too familiar pattern es-Systems, tablished elsewhere by EDS: ing tactics."
