$4 Million in Till, Nixon's Campaign Committee Reports

By Morton Mintz Washington Post Staff Writer

The Finance Committee to,000, were paid in behalf of its Re-elect the President re-chairman, Maurice H. Stans. ported yesterday that it has $4 million in cash on hand after spending almost $1 million in another Washington firm, Wilthe last three months, includ- kinson, Cragun & Barker. ing $241,000 for outside legal expenses.

Another large chunk of expenditures, $395,000, went out known until recently that as refunds to five corporations Murray Chotiner, a long-time that, as previously reported, made illegal contributions had paid a total of about $31, from corporate funds without the committee's knowledge.

The committee summarized its finances in a quarterly report to the General Accounting Offices for the period June 1 through Aug. 31.

The disclosure that $4 million remains in the till almost and $10,949, respectively. 10 months after President Nixon's re-election is expected to that during the period in quesintensify efforts by the Repub- tion, May, 1972, through Janulican National Committee for ary, 1973, Chotiner had billed a transfer of funds to it.

The heavy legal fees over vey expenses" without specifithe summer reflect in part the cally naming the two purcommittee's defense against a ported news persons. lawsuit by Common Cause that now has been settled. The fund of $113.21 in travel exbiggest payment, $76,000, went penses was made to McGovern's to the Washington firm of campaign manager, Gary W. Jackson, Laskey & Parkinson. Hart of Denver. Neither Hart

Of the $48,000, $33,170 went to

The committee, in a memo to the GAO, said it had not adviser to President Nixon, 000 to two "reporters" who traveled with the Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. George McGovern, and filed reports with Chotiner.

The "reporters" were Lucianne Goldberg and Seymour Freidin, who were paid $19,932

The committee indicated it for "survey services and sur-

A surprising unexplained re-The committee said about nor a committee spokesman one-fifth of its legal fees, $48,- |could be reached for comment.