THE WASHINGTON POST Thursday, Sept. 28, 1972

tergate Trial Is Delaye

By Lawrence Meyer Washington Post Staff Writer

The presiding judge in the trial of the seven men charged with the June 17 Watergate break-in at Democratic headquarters has granted a 14-day extension to defense and prosecution lawyers to file motions and responses.

District Court Judge John J. Presidential election.

Under the new deadlines, fore the election.

does not sit on weekends, ac-tion on the motions by Sirica could not be expected before Oct. 30. In addition, court ob-servers noted, attorneys could here the sit on. Kennelly was servers noted, attorneys could brought into the case Monday four men. ask for a hearing, further de-after Sirica earlier ordered laying rulings by Sirica. No Liddy to retain a local attortrial date has been set.

Last week, U.S. District Court Judge Charles R. Ri-would need extra time to re-The action by Chief U.S. chey said it will be "impossi- view the case and to prepare ble" to start the trial of the motions. Kennelly's request Sirica, taken during a brief $3.2 million civil damage suit was unopposed by the prosecucourt session Tuesday, vir- brought by the Democratic tion. tually eliminates the possibil-ity of the criminal trial pro-two countersuits brought by terday denied a motion by ceeding before the Nov. 7 the ccommittee for the Re-the prosecution that four Election of the President be other defendants-Bernard L.

motions will not be due until Sirica orally extended the Virgilio R. Gonzalez and Oct. 18 and responses will not be due until Oct. 28, a Satur-seven days and then granted to retain separate counsel. day. Since the court normally the prosecution an additional The four men are being repney to represent him.

Barker, Eugenio R. Martinez,

A 3

William O. Bittman, the attorney for another defendant, E. Howard Hunt Jr., yesterday Kennelly told Sirica that he asked Sirica to bar any further statements out of court by persons involved in the case concerning it.

The seventh defendant in the case is James W. McCord.

C CONCER