

Nixon knows he can't win so he created another diversion, a side issue that at least will delay the ultimate Supreme Court decision. There will now be a fight over whether he can do what he is trying, not going to the S.C. immediately on the issue.

In doing this he has thrown out a number of other side issues that can be seized upon.

This is, of course, more warning of Nixon & if nobody is up to charging him, certainly of Goldwater & Eisenhower as "definitive" decision S.C. The Ct decision is affirmative. That is what would go to the S.C. if it is affirmed and no more, then Nixon faces a "definitive" decision he has pledged to honor.

He has been saying don't "wallow" leave it to the courts - wait if he loses. Then he cut his reports agreed deal on Bush appointment - let the hand followed Reps like Griffin & Land saying if he does not comply court decision would be impeached
