Loophole May Allow Fuel Shortages

By Jack Anderson

given the oil industry the means made the survey virtually meanof creating a costly natural gas ingless. It would allow the oil and oil "shortage" in the next companies to report only oil few months.

was used by Big Oil as an excuse cover. to keep prices up 50 per cent or more and oil profits even barrels that could be recovered higher, as motorists waited in at $5 a barrel, but contains angasoline lines and homeowners shivered.

To prevent a recurrence, Congress passed a law requiring the Federal Energy Administration to conduct a "complete and independent analysis of actual (domestic) oil and gas reserves . . .

But the FEA survey, which is supposed to give a true picture of whether there is a "shortage," has instead been run for the benefit of the oil companies, principle applies for natural not for the benefit of the public.

Last August, the survey forms trolled by the oil industry. were sent out to the oil industry for suggestions, but the views of consumer advocates were not solicited. As a result, the oil companies were successful in ington lobby. There, they can be in his native South Carolina. modifying the forms pretty checked before the FEA remuch to their whim.

Indeed, the FEA quietly issued a "Justification State Dr. Daniel Rathbun, discounts ting" the illegal "Operation ment," admitting that the origi- the suggestion that routing the Townhouse" which raised $3 nal reporting forms had been forms through the petroleum million for Republican candi-ally all the suggestions" from face. At first, he also insisted. Although lodged in the base industry.

In defiance of Congress, the One industry suggestion administration has quietly adopted by the FEA has now that is easy to pump, and to ig-The "shortage" last winter nore oil that is harder to re-

> Thus if a well produces 500 other 200 barrels that would be pany need only report the first

What this means to the unwitting consumer, of course, is that ken Harry Dent, the general 200 barrels can be withheld counsel of the Republican Nafrom the market while Big Oil tional Committee, has been cries "Shortage!" and raises given the bitter choice of pleadprices accordingly. When the ing guilty to a minor charge or prices have skyrocketed again, of facing a felony indictment the 200 barrels can be drawn and a costly, painful trial. from the ground and sold at the new, higher prices. The same gas, which is primarily con-

In addition, oil companies send their survey forms to the American Petroleum Institute, the industry's powerful Washceives them.

"modified to incorporate virtu- lobby is a slap in the public's dates in 1970.

that under-reporting is impossi- ment of a private townhouse, ble to avoid.

report how much oil remained dent Nixon. in the ground if ordered to do so. It was only small companies that would have trouble, he con-in his survey, Rathbun insisted house." A second former Nixondifficult to recover, the oil com-the FEA was working on other means to find out how much oil guilty to running "Operation is really in America.

Dent's Dilemma-Plain-spo-

Dent, architect of President Nixon's successful "Southern Strategy," was given the ultima- to denounce the White House tum a few days ago by Charles "dirty tricks" operators and to Ruff of the Watergate special prosecutor's office during secret talks in Washington. According to friends, Dent is now house" was minimal. gloomily mulling over the offer

Under Ruff's proposal, Dent would plead guilty to the misde-· The FEA's survey director, meanor of "aiding and abetthe funding operation was set But under questioning by my up by White House Chief of Staff associate Jack Cloherty, Rath- H. R. (Bob) Haldeman and conbun admitted that the major oil tributions were personally earcompanies had data and could marked for candidates by Presi-

Mr. Nixon, of course, has been pardoned. But his former lawyer, Herbert W. Kalmbach is serving a 6-to-18 months sen-Despite the gigantic loophole tence growing out of the "Townaide, Jack Gleason, has pleaded Townhouse" and faces a possible year in jail.

> Dent's involvement is the most ironic of all. He learned Deep South politics at the knee of his old boss, Sen. Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.). But Dent, like hismentor, is personally regarded as honest, even by his enemies.

His candor led him privately quit the Nixon team in favor of his current job. Prosecutors concede his role at the "Town-

Footnote: "Operation Townhouse" was illegal because it was not registered as a political committee. Oddly, the senators and congressmen who got money from the "Townhouse" have been spared prosecution.

"1974, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.