Weicker Wants Testimony
From Former F.B.I. Aide

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (UPI) — Senator Lowell P. Weicker Jr., Republican of Connecticut, asked today that a former F.B.I. official be called to testify at the Watergate hearings about activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that might have affected the 1972 Presidential race.

Senator Weicker named William C. Sullivan, who headed the F.B.I.'s intelligence arm for nine years and later served as a chief aide to the late F.B.I. director, J. Edgar Hoover.

Mr. Weicker, a member of the Senate Watergate committee, wrote to its chairman, Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., Democrat of North Carolina, to "formally request" Mr. Sullivan's appearance.
