House Panel Asks Dean to Testify on

By JAMES M. NAUGHTON

Special to The New York Times

Bipartisan leaders of a House to restrict the use of executive mediate response today to the subcommittee offered today to privilege to deny information more limited request from the forgo questioning of John W. to Congress. Mr. Erlenborn and House subcommittee. Dean 3d about the Watergate six other Republicans sponsored

Dean's testimony was "essen-his relationship to the Water-WASHINGTON, March 27-tial" to consideration of a bill gate conspiracy, made no im-

Dean 3d about the Watergate SIX other Republicans sponsored conspiracy if Mr. Dean, the White House legal counsel, would testify on the issue of executive privilege.

Representatives William S. Moorhead, Democrat of Pennsylvania, and John N. Erlenborn, Republican of Illinois, born, Republican of Illinois, made public the text of a letter water at the watergate complex. Mr. Nixon is sued copies of a study by the Library of Congress that break-in and bugging of the contradicted President Nixon's statement March 12 on executive in which they urread President contends that Mr. Dean is jvoked doctrine of executive in the bill.

A white House spokesman said, "We are studying the requests."

Mr. Moorhead and Mr. Erlenborn issued copies of a study by the Library of Congress that break-in and bugging of the contradicted President Nixon's statement March 12 on executive in which they urread President contends that Mr. Dean is jvoked doctrine of executive mittee chairman, said that Mr. crats to have Mr. Dean clarify

A White House spokesman said, "We are studying the rein which they urged President contends that Mr. Dean is Nixon to allow Mr. Dean to give immune from Congressional exprivilege protects the confidentimited testimony" to the subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information.

The White House, under closure would impair the order-layer from Senate growing pressure from Senate Republicans as well as Demo-ment.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1973

Executive Privilege Only

Mr. Nixon said in the formal would be "of such a unique statement that he invoked the nature" that the subcommittee four years, but the Library of of its questions. Congress report cited 19 occa- lated in their letter to the Pressions on which the Nixon Ad- ident that Mr. Dean's testimony ministration refused to give in-would be limited to executive

The 19 instances included of requests for the invocation four in which Mr. Nixon expressly invoked the tradition of executive privilege and 15 oc- tions would be put to Mr. Dean casions when documents or testhat would in any way impinge timony were withheld without on his confidential relationship"

As the White House lawyer, questions would be put to Mr. Mr. Dean is responsible for de-Dean that would relate to his ciding when to declare execu-role in the investigation of pos-tive privilege. Accordingly, Mr. sible involvement of White privilege only three times in was willing to limit the scope

The two Congressmen stiput formation to Congressional privilege and "matters related to his key role in the handling

They also said that "no quesformally invoking the privilege. with Mr. Nixon and that "no Erlenborn and Mr. Moorhead House personnel in the Watersaid, Mr. Dean's testimony gate incident."