Ford Claims Facts Clear Nixon; Says, Revenue Share Threatened By Carrol Cagle He read & bulk over write while on four? and Washington lobbyists has The bulk of Ford's prepa

Special to The Washington Pest

SANTA FE, N.M., July 12-Vice President Ford said to-Judiciary Committee would centraliation," Ford said. clear President Nixon "of any The Vice President impeachable offense."

en route to the Atomic Energy land Lt. Gov. Blair Lee III Commission's Los Alamos Sci-|said during a question period entific Laboratory, Ford said:

"I think the evidence as a whole—the new evidence as do away with general revenue well as the old evidence— sharing" and asked Ford to well as the old evidenceclearly exonerates the Presi- identify those behind the efdent of any involvement in fort. the break-in, or in any ITT or milk fund impeachable offense.

"And I think the preponderance of the evidence-all of it -is in favor of the President and exonerates him of any im-revenue sharing."

"They want to help recapday the full package of evi- ture the money and authority dence released by the House lost through governmental de-

The Vice President departed from his prepared text At a brief news conference to make the assertion. Marythat he had "heard the rumors of a mounting conspiracy to Ford replied that federal bureaucrats and "a number of trade associations that justify their own jobs in Washington' are behind what he called the "quiet but sinister effort."

The Vice President said he peachable offense," he added. felt compelled to call atten-Later, speaking to the Na- tion to the possibility because tional Lieutenant Governors' "I fear that it will surface too Conference in Santa Fe, Ford late. I'd rather be prepared said a "behind-the-scenes ef- for the battle rather than fort" by federal bureaucrats caught napping."

The bulk of Ford's prepared been launched "to kill general text was on new federalism and ecentraliation of governmental powers. He was interrupted by applause when he asserted: "Americans must never be reduced to computeried robots by a single center of power."

Although not mentioning Watergate by name, he defended his journies of 100,000 miles since December and said, "It would be a mistake for federal officials in Washington to isolate themselves from those who pay their salaries and hold them responsible."